NAVAGRAHA SHANTI PUJA

Shanti Pujan or Sampoorna Mahapujan?

Both are your own ceremony for all nine grahas, performed in full, in your name and gotra. The Sampoorna Mahapujan takes four to five days and adds the additional Vedic processes, each graha's own beej-mantra jaap and its own samidha in the havan, and extra attention to the challenge you name.

The wood the tradition gives each graha

Representative picture

In Shanti Pujan, one havan is offered for all nine. In the Mahapujan each graha receives its own samidha in the fire, the wood the tradition gives it:

Surya Aak (Arka)	Chandra Palash	Mangal Khair (Khadira)
Budh Apamarg	Brihaspati Peepal (Ashvattha)	Shukra Gular (Udumbara)
Shani Shami	Rahu Durva	Ketu Kusha

Which suits you?

SHANTI PUJAN · ₹24,800

When several parts of life feel unsettled at once

Or before a new chapter: a move, a venture, a big decision. All nine grahas are honoured together, by the full procedure, for balance and a strong start.

SAMPOORNA MAHAPUJAN · ₹53,100

When one challenge stands out and presses hard

Rarely is one graha alone the cause; the tradition holds that results come from how the grahas act on one another. This pujan touches all nine, and the grahas behind the challenge you name receive extra attention in the jaap.

After you book

1. Your sankalp
   Choose your pujan and share the names for the sankalp.
2. Your call
   With the Mahapujan, we arrange your call with your Astrologer: name the one challenge pressing you most, and the muhurat is chosen.
3. The pujan
   The pandits perform the pujan in your name and gotra. You do not need to be present.
4. See it done
   Photos and a recording of your sankalp are sent to you after the ceremony.
